 Interested in sponsoring a scholarship?

In an effort to keep theatre accessible to all, we make scholarships available to students who have the passion but not the means. You can help us help them by sponsoring a scholarship to the Spotlight Academy. Your gift can make all the difference to a student. Please include a donation on this form or contact us today to contribute toward our scholarship fund! Thank you!

PHOTO RELEASE: By submitting this registration form with payment, you give LCT or the Pump House permission to photograph your child and use those photographs for marketing materials and promotions.

Scholarships are available.

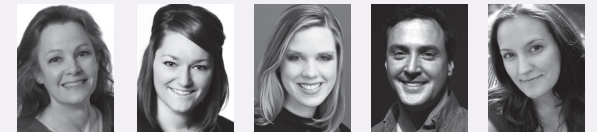

The Academy

SPOTLIGHT ACADEMY OF DRAMATIC ARTS

is a collaborative offering of the Pump House Regional Arts Center, La Crosse Community Theatre and area performing arts professionals. Spotlight Academy offers instruction in dramatic arts for ages 8 to adult.

Academy students will gain an appreciation of theatre arts, as well as a deeper understanding of the importance of teamwork, discipline, focus and commitment, all while having fun with their peers. Students will also benefit from an enhanced sense of self-image and confidence while they foster self-expression and develop creative acting skills.

Your Teachers

Diane Breeser Marcia Brendum Katie Clausen Michael Scott Kelsey Taunt

Our educators are experienced in age-appropriate instruction and have an extensive background in the performing arts. They have a passion for theatre, a desire to work with youth and a commitment to bringing out the best in every student.
